Create New Submission

The IDRiM 2026 Conference invites researchers, practitioners, policymakers, and stakeholders from around the world to submit abstracts for oral and poster presentations. At this stage, authors are required to submit only an abstract. Authors of accepted abstracts will receive specific guidelines for preparing their presentation materials at a later date. For more information about IDRiM 2026, including abstract guidelines and template, Special Opportunities for Young Scientists, and requirements, visit the official conference portal at www.idrim2026.com and go to the "Guideline and Submission" page.

Create New Submission

The proposal for a Special Session should be submitted by one of the Special Session Convener(s), Moderator(s), Coordinator(s), or Chair(s). Furthermore, the proposer is also responsible for informing all contributors about the session details. Proposers may request more than one Special Session. To request multiple sessions, you must create a new application form for each session. All proposals will be reviewed by the committee. For current proposal submissions, you are not required to upload any materials (e.g., PowerPoint slides). If your session is accepted, the committee will provide detailed guidelines at a later date. For more information about IDRiM 2026, including proposal guideline, visit the official conference portal at www.idrim2026.com and go to the "Guideline and Submission" page.
